

NO ^{REAL} MONSTERS
ALLOWED

This Halloween,
I made the mistake of inviting
REAL monsters to my party.

Probably the invitations got mailed incorrectly.

It all started when I heard a tappin'
at my front door. I thought maybe it was some more of my friends,
trying to scare me.

When I opened the door,
I THOUGHT I saw my friends
all dressed up as monsters.

So I made the mistake of inviting them in. And right away, they started acting really weird.

When I say they ate everything,
I mean they ate EVERYTHING!
First, they ate my party
decorations.

They ate the living room, kitchen,
and they even ate the bathroom.

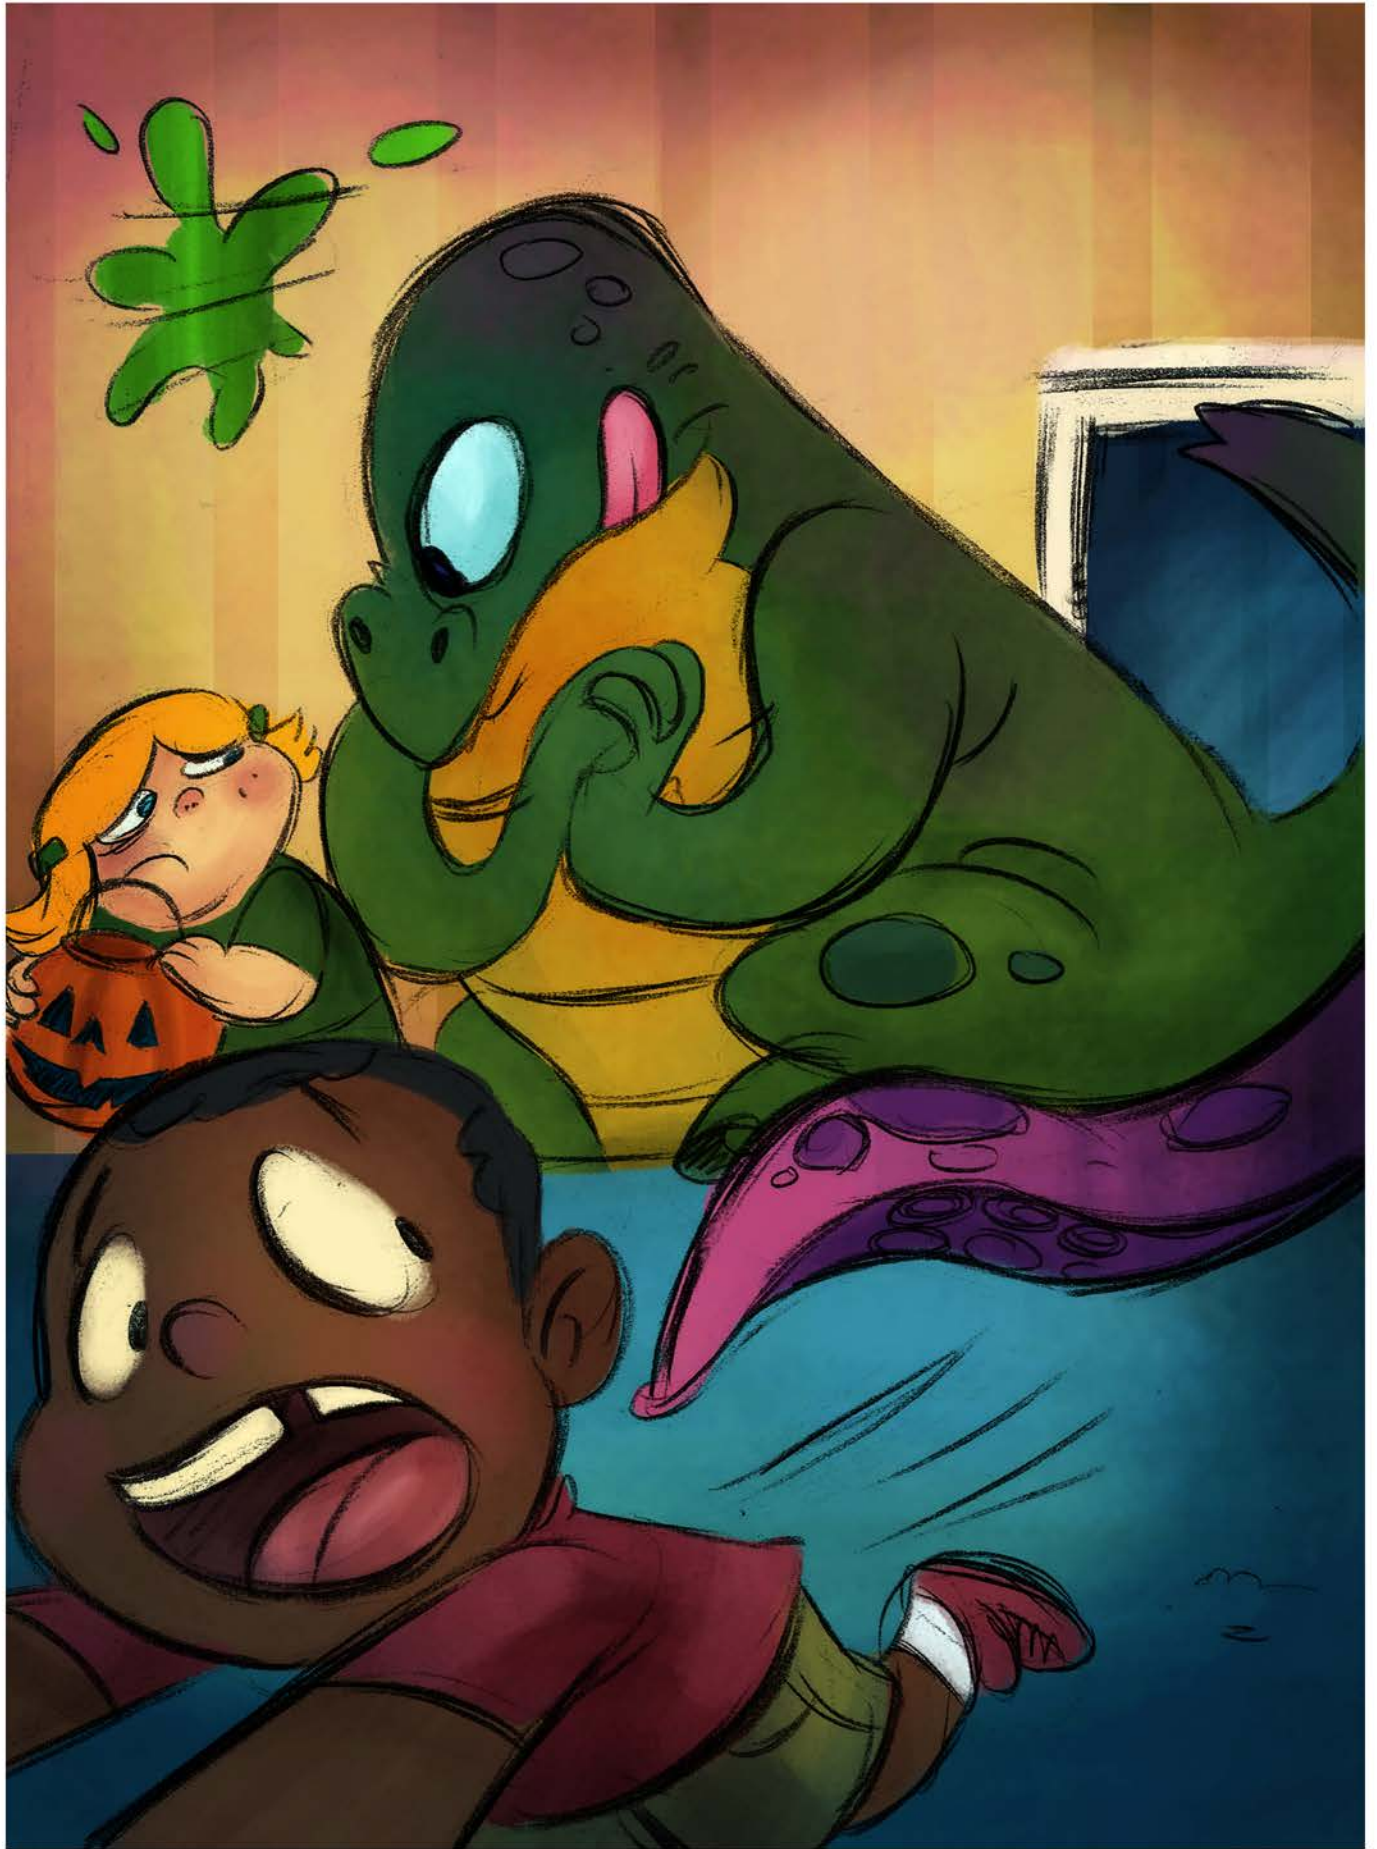

Worser of all, they even ate
my cousin's brain!
(But that's okay, 'cause he wasn't using it, anyway.)

And that's when my party
was ruined. RUINED!
